2019 ECC – CEU Written Announcements and General Session Verbal Announcements

The American Academy of Professional Coders: “This program has the prior approval of the American Academy of Professional Coders (AAPC) for up to 9.0 continuing education hours towards its CPC®, CPC-H®, CPC-P®, CIRCC® or CPMA® designations. Granting of prior approval in no way constitutes endorsement by AAPC of the program content or the program sponsor.” Logo below must appear in the written announcement.

For General Session Announcement and Applicable Session Announcements Only, add the following: AAPC has approved to total of 9 CE credits for the conference, AAPC requires that you obtain confirmation of attendance on their own Certificate of Attendance form. You may pick this up by providing proof of registration to Connie Wing at the Registration Table. AAPC's Certificate of Attendance form lists the panels that have been approved for CE credit. After each session, bring the ECC Certificate of Attendance you will receive at the end of each session, along with the AAPC Certificate of Attendance, to Connie Wing at the Registration Table and she will give you the applicable CEU code for that session.

The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners: “The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE) will accept attendance for up to 9.0 hours toward its CPE requirements. Certified Fraud Examiners may claim 1 hour of CPE credit for every 50 minutes of instruction.”

For General Session Announcement and Applicable Session Announcements Only, add the following: CFEs are responsible for maintaining their own CPE records. If a session is related to the prevention and detection of fraud, it may be counted for fraud-related CPE credit. The Chart at the back of the Invitation identifies those panels as “Fraud Track.” To receive CE credits, please submit to ACFE proof of registration and the ECC Certificate of Attendance you will receive at the end of each session. For more information, visit the ACFE Website at www.acfe.com.

The Commission for Case Manager Certification (CCMC): “This program has been pre-approved by the Commission for Case Manager Certification for up to 7.5 clock hours of continuing education credit to Certified Case Managers (CCMs.)”

For General Session Announcement and Applicable Session Announcements Only, add the following: To apply for CE credits, provide proof of registration and the ECC Certificate of Attendance you will receive at the end of each session, to Connie Wing at the Registration Table; she will provide you with the CCMC Certificate of Attendance form.

The Certification of Disability Management Specialists Commission (CDMSC): “The CDMS Commission has approved our application for up to 7.5 clock hours of continuing education credits.”

For General Session Announcement and Applicable Session Announcements Only, add the following: To apply for CE credits, provide proof of registration and the ECC Certificate of Attendance you will receive at the end of each session, to Connie Wing at the Registration Table; she will provide you with the CDMSC Certificate of Attendance form.
